

are over; college days are at hand. College days are pre-eminently days when you will open the doors of your hearts and let new friends come in. In these years, especially, you are generous, ready to hear a knock, and to respond to it. TONIGHT:

I wish to speak to you young people concerning three fundamental duties of life:

1. Ability to put first things first
2. Moral stability
3. Self respect
4. Self discipline

1. Duties to yourselves.

(a) Some has said, "To thine own self be true, Thou canst not then be false to anyman." 1 Cor. 16:13, 14.

(b) "Quit ye like men" involves and reveals the need of a manly temper:

- (1) To be able to contend with difficulties. 5. Courage to live about average
- (2) To bear up under oppisition.
- (3) To endure temporary defeat.

6. Staying Resever

2. Duties to our fellowmen. Rom. 12:17; Matt. 5:39

(a) Every one is under obligation, so far as talent, opporunity and means are possessed to use his influence to promote the happiness of the human race.

3. Duties to God.

(a) Every man sustains duties and responsibilities to God for which man must answer

(b) Sure rule for success: Matt. 6:33
