

1. Usually when we say that man has what it takes to live abundantly we mean that he has plenty of material possessions. Abundant living consists of at least three things:

1. Mind.

a. There is no such thing as an idiot living abundantly.

2. Heart. There are two kinds of people in the world:

a. The heartless. The Neros-Hitlers
Those who have no mercy.

b. Those who have a heart. Those whose heart is right. Scriptures
Prov. 4:23; Luke 6:45; Matt. 15:19
Matt. 5:8.

3. Character.

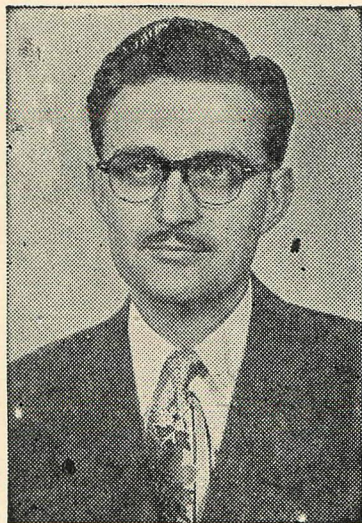

Character is that quality of life that reveals moral purpose.
Examples:

a. Joseph in Egypt. Gen. 39:1-23.
His resistance to temptation:

1. He pled the law of honor. He hath kept back nothing from me but thee.
2. He pled the law of chastity.
3. He pled the law of piety.
