

IF THE SALT HAVE LOST HIS SAVOR?

1. Metaphorically of believers. Matt. 5:13

THREE THINGS IMPLIED:

1. A false position: Christians in n
2. Of their Character and name only. Luke-Condition. Mark 9:50 warm, backsliders
2. A possible deterioration.
(1) A Christian may lose his "first love!" Rev. 2:4
3. The woeful consequence.
(1) "It is good for nothing."

3. of wisdom exhibited in their speech. Col. 4:6

LOST POWER: Continually exposed to sun, air, train it becomes insipid. CAN YET

DESTROY: Must not be cast ob land for it would blight its fertility.

It is not you the salt, unfriendly age needs but it is the salt - light in you that is needed

A MORAL OBLIGATION ENFORCED!

"Let your light so shine!" The Christian life like the light:

1. Is silent in its mode of operation
2. It is not how much we owe the finance company on our building BUT THINK OF WHAT WE OWE THE COMMUNITY AND THE WORLD.

FINALLY: Not many of us like to be salt for it does its work in silence
while LIGHT is seen everywhere

The Christian life a diffusing of a flood of resplendent, radiant light shining more and more unto the perfect day
