

This startling appeal is made to memory.

memory is a rear view mirror

1. Memory is a marvellous gift.

1. Loss of memory is loss of usefulness.
2. Loss of memory is loss of responsibility.
3. The brain itself becomes a mere pulp, it is the mind that remembers now and in eternity.

2. Memory is the store house of the soul.

1. Its capacity for storage is tremendous.
2. It may be a place of precious keepsakes or a chamber of horrors.
3. It is a museum of records and events, it is the reference book for a coming judgment.

3. Memory is affected by the state of the heart.

1. Son, Remember. We remember most clearly what we have loved most dearly.

1. If we love the world then our hearts will be set on it. 1 John 2:15-17.

2. Owing to the poverty of our language one word sometimes has to serve several purposes. it is so here:

1. Means the globe itself. Ps.96:10
2. The races of peoples. John 3:16.
3. The outer form of things. 1Cor.7:31
4. The world of busy human concerns, thinking, planning, hungering, thirsting, striving, for its own aims and purposes without regard to God.

4. memory is the reproductive faculty - as here
