

THE RIGHT KIND OF A FATHER Matt.17:14
Mark 9:17; Luke9:38

- A. Three Characteristics of the right kind of a father:
1. His example: Christian character
 - a. He must be the right kind of a man.
 - b. The first impression a life has of manhood is that given by the father. What do the children think of manhood?
 2. The interest he takes in his home and children.
 - a. His interest should be active and personal.
 - b. He should stand by the mother to help and encourage her in the proper training of children.
 3. The right kind of father is measured by how he meets his responsibility for his children's destiny. How will the children turn out? God's questions: God will ask us not only,
 - a. About our money he gave us...
 - b. How did you use your talent?
 - c. He will ask:

2. where are your children?
3. Did you use them true and faithful to the highest trust
3. Did you bring your children with you?
