

"The Well Was Near Her, But She Saw it Not"

1. Scripture: Genesis 21:1-21.

2. Hagar represents the souls still Christless

1. They are weary. Restless; never at ease

2. They are thirsty. Never really happy.

3. Their dearest comforts are slipping from them, as Hagar's child, by death.

3. The well was near her, but she saw it not.

1. God took the first step. "What aileth the Hagar?" Verse 17.

2. Thirst...their want. Water supply gone. God must supply.

3. Arousing expectation. There is water but where? Hagar must go for the water.

Jesus said: John 4:14; 7:37. Let him come. Man must act.

4. The well was near her, but she saw it not.

1. So is the water of life. Why are so many without peace? The well is beside them, the sound of the gospel is familiar to them. The Bible is read in their hearing but it speaks nothing to them. 2Cor. 3:15.

5. What she saw. The well of life. Aflowing four

1. What do you see today?

Zechariah 13:1; 14:8. John 8:32-34. 6:44-4

2. God Will open your heart. Acts 16:14-15.

Are you one of those thousands of homeless, churchless, wanderers today, roaming purposeless and perplexed across the trackless wastes of life.
