Paul an example. Acts 9:26

The Lord's answer. Acts 9:6; John 6:28,29.

2. WHERE MUST I WORK?

1. Go work today in my vineyard. Matt. 21:28.

John 4:35

Say not there
are yet four months, and then cometh the harvest!

3. WHEN MUST I WORK?

1. Today: go work. Matt, 21:28; John 9:4

4. THE LIKENESS OF THE TWO SONS

1. Both of them heard alike.

2. Both received the same invitation, "Go work today in my vineyard."

5. THEIR ANSWERS

1. "I will not!" Matt. 21:29

2. "I go, sir!" Matt. 21:30

6. TWO CLASSES OF SINNERS REPRESENTED

1. The openly irreligious. Those who consider lightly the gospel of invitation.

2. The hypocritical professors. The Pharisees who say and do not. Matt.23:3

7. THE TWO SONS IN CONTRAST

1. The son who refused and repented. His change shows:

(1) His reflectiveness. Luke 15:17

(2) His humility. Luke 15:18. "I will arise and go."

(3) His willingness to own himself wrong. Luke 15:18

(4) His desire to do better. Luke 15:20. HE WENT.

2. The son who consented to go but went not.

(1) His ready assent. "I go, Sir." He knew he should.

(2) His courtesy...His brother rude and insolent.

(3) His disobedience: No doubt honest in his profession. He really intended to go.

(4) His just condemnation. Jesus appealed to the bystanders for the verdict.
