

INTRODUCTION. There are many lessons to be taught and learned from the Great Commission. I do not know how the others will be speaking on this same subject ~~will approach~~ but I am sure that each lesson will be instructive as well as inspirational. Plan to hear each one if it is possible for you to do so.

Tonight I would like to use Mark 1:1 ~~as a~~ as a sort of a beginning place.

1. Mark 1:1; we read, "In the beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the son of God!"
2. Some have said that the gospel has had three beginnings, Namely:

1. The beginning as seen in the Divine counsels, when the gospel was but a thought.

1. Naaman an example: "...Go and wash in Jordan seven times, and thy flesh shall come again to thee, and thou shalt be clean." 2 Kings 5:10

2. Lessons from Naaman:

Leprosy and sin: "What leprosy is to the body, sin is to the soul.

Sincerely seeking the way:

1. The little maid said, "the prophet that is in Samaria..."

2. Naaman made a mistake:

1. When he arrived in the land he went to the king instead of the prophet.

2. The king knew little if anything about what to do with Naaman's leprosy.

3. Go to a denominational preacher today and he does not know how to tell you what to do to be saved.

4. When you go men and creeds, instead of the word of God you are misguided.

2. The second beginning of the gospel is seen when Jesus Christ became man to dwell among men. Jno. 1:14

3. The beginning as seen in its obedient believers on Pentecost. GO YE INTO ALL THE WORLD WITH THIS GOSPEL.

THE TWO COMMISSIONS:

1. The limited commission. (Matt. 10:1-42; Mark 6:7-13; Luke 9:1-6)
1. The "limited" commission to: "But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. Mat. 10:6

2. THE GREAT COMMISSION.

1. Directed to all the world: Jew and Gentile.

2. God's word has never been what men would have it to be.

1. His words are marked with simplicity.

2. The Great Commission is said to be the Church's Charter.

3. By this instrument, the charter, we hold our all.

3. Consider the work which this Great Commission requires:

1. Go Into All The World. (Mark 16:15, 16)

1. How to go...When to go.

Nothing said about "how" or a definite "way."

3. The work of the Great Commission seems to include seems to include three things. They are:

1. Teach all nations. Not limited by politics or geographic boundary.

2. Baptizing them.

3. Teaching them to observe:

1. "Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you."

4. Finally consider the promise with which this commission is associated.

1. "I am with you always, even unto the end of the world."

Some lesson to learn: (Naaman an example)

1. Obedience is required on the part of all.

2. That partial obedience is disobedience

3. That the power that saves is God, whatever may be the commands or conditions required.
