

AMONG THE FAITHLESS; CALEB & JOSHUA.

Numbers 14:6-9.

INTRODUCTION:

Sh. call hard by old Hebrew where; a Mahom? equal? Jesus and Rebecca; Jacob is? etc.

1. The evil report of the spies. Joshua and Caleb did not call in question the facts on which their brethren harped but they set them in another light. Num. 14:7-9.

NOTE:

At Troas when Paul received the command to pass over to Macedonia, and plant the church in Europe, he did not send ~~over~~ over Timoty and Luke to search out the land and see whether they and Silas and he were equal to thw work, Had he done this he never would have taken ship to Europe. CONCLUSION:

Where God's command is clear our wisdom is to venture upon great things for God, and expect great things from God.

THE SPIRIT OF CALEB WAS:

1. A conciliatory spirit: He tried to still the people. Verse 30. Matthew 5:9
2. A cheerful spirit. Not gloomy and despondent as others. SEE ROM. 8:28.
3. A prompt Spirit. Verse 30. "Let us go up at once."
4. A courageous spirit. Of the 12 spies he and Joshua only.
5. A Trustful spirit. "The Lord is with us."
Verses 8, 9.
