

INTRODUCTION:

1. It requires an effort to see good days. Days in which the blessing of God is enjoyed.
2. For man people "really living" is casting of the restraints of life. Caution is thrown to the wind. Many live for self-pleasing. I invite you to have a look at the prodigal son. Luke 15:11-32.

SOME RULES THAT GOVERNED THE LIFE OF CHRIST

1. Christ lived for others. He went about doing good. Acts 10:38.
2. Christ lived for the things of the soul. Luke 9:57-62. He did not own a house or a farm. He knew the real things of life were not in this world.
3. Christ turned away from sin. Ps. 34:12-16.
(a) The way of the transgression is hard.
(b) As ye sow so shall ye reap-Paul. Gal. 6:7
4. Christ lived for the world to come.

IF YOU WOULD LOVE LIFE AND SEE GOOD DAYS PETER SUGGESTS THESE RULES:

1. Refrain your tongue from evil. The tongue has caused lots of trouble in this world.
2. Turn away from evil. 1 Thess. 4:11,12; 5:22.
3. Do good. Not only to do good; but we are to be good. Matt 19:16
4. Seek peace. Rom. 12:17,18; 2 Tim. 2:22; Heb. 12:14
