

1. When Ezekiel looked about him for examples of the most righteous men that had ever lived he chose three men distinguished for their rank and riches and fair and noble life before God.

2. Noah, Daniel, and Job.
 1. Consider the splendid pre-eminence of Noah, Daniel, Job.
 2. These three men are selected from ages far apart, and from the greatest diversity of circumstances.

3. Consider these men:
 1. All three were holy men, true to God and upright in life.
 2. All three were faithful in circumstances of isolation.
 3. All three were sorely tried.
 4. All three were victorious by means of firm fidelity.

4. These men conquered in quiet ways:
 1. The conquered by:
 1. Faith; 2. Obedience;
 3. Patience; 4. Steadfastness.
