

- 1-He that exhorteth, let him wait on exhortation.
 - 1-Exhorting is a peculiar and useful talent.
 - 2-To exhort means to:
 - 1-Encourage others to work.
 - 2-To comfort and console those in distress.
 - 3-To counsel those overtaken by temptation--Gal.6:1.
- 2-He that giveth: Let him give with simplicity.
 - 1-Giving must be free from pretense and self-seeking. Matt.6:2.
 - 2-Giving must not be done in an ostentatious, pretentious manner, to be seen of men. Matt.6:2
- 3-He that ruleth, with diligence.
 - 1-He that directs in the affairs of the church. Direct wisely.
 - 2-To direct wisely would imply:
 - 1-Direction with promptness.
 - 2-Direction with earnestness.
 - 3-In a more general sense the word is applied to ruling one's own house and children. 1-Tim.3:3-5;12

1-He that exhorts, let him wait on expectation.
1-Expectation is a genuine and great
1-He that exhorts, let him wait on
1-Encourage others to work.
2-To comfort and console those in distress.
2-To counsel those overtaken by temptation--Gal. 6:1.

2-He that exhorts, let him give with simplicity.
1-Giving must be free from pressure and self-seeking. Matt. 6:2.
2-Giving must not be done in an ostentatious, pretentious manner.
to the glory of man. Matt. 6:2.

2-He that exhorts, with diligence.
1-He that exhorts in the silence of the church, Direct wisely.
2-To direct wisely would require
1-Direction with promptness.
2-Direction with earnestness.

2-Use more reserve since the word is applied to rulers one's own house and children. 1-Tim. 3:5-6.

"Notes on Romans 12:8

4-He that sheweth mercy with cheerfulness.

1-May be used here in a specific sense...Elders, Deacons, or Deaconesses, 1-Tim.5:9-10.

2-Tonight we use it in a general sense.

1-Of all that in anything shew mercy.

2-Those that have to do with such as are sick and sore and as the result are sometimes cross and peevish.

NEED:

Not only patience, but cheerfulness.

3-They need patience and cheerfulness-----

1-To make the work more easy.

2-To make the work more acceptable to God.

4-He that showeth mercy with cheerfulness.

1-He that loveth his neighbor as himself.
address... Eliza, Parsons, or Dorchester, 1-11-5:10.

2-That we use it in a general sense.

1-Of all that is anything else.
mercy.

3-Those that have to do with each other as the sick and sore and as the result are sometimes cross and peevish.

NEED:

Not only patience, but cheerfulness.

3-They need patience and cheerfulness.

1-to make the work more easy.

2-to make the work more agreeable to God.