b-1681-The heart of a tree. Etc.

4-It identifies the vital part or principle

a-The heart of the land-Strength, fertility.

5-It is something of the shape of a heart.

a-A symmetrical figure formed of two similar curves meeting in a point at one end and a cusp at the other. Valentines.

6-It sometimes identifies the seat of feeling, understanding and thought. In the widest sense it is the mind.

a-It is the seat of one's inmost thoughts and feelings: Such as; Intent, Will, Purpose, inclination, desire, disposition, temperament, character, ETC.

2-Peace: We think of;

1-Freedom from, or cessation of war.

2-Freedom from civil commotion.

3-Freedom from quarrels or dissension between individuals.

4-If we are at peace with him, who rules the world, we can bear with quiet and complacency all the minor ills, , trials, and troubles that so often spring up in our pathway here

3-The Author of Christian peace:

1-Christ is our peace, Eph. 2:14;

For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broke down the middle wall of partition between us.

2-Thessalonians 3:16;

Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all.

Isaiah 9:6-7;

Among the appellations assigned to Christ he is called:

"The Prince of peace," and then in the seventh verse the declaration, "Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end."

4-Galatians 5:22-23; Peace.

22-But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace-Character as an inward state; longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, - character in expression toward man; faith,

23-Meekness, temperance; -Character in expression toward God-against such there is no law.

(Neither God nor man makes laws against such qualities and virtues as these, because they work good to all, and ill to none.)

1-Peace-a virtue of the fruit of the Spirit.

a-I speak not to you of peace in the sense of exemption from the sore troubles of this world.

b-But I speak to you:

Of that peace which we have only through Christ and enjoy through Christ. And say to you;

That it is a peace of conscience, peace of soul, and finally, peace that surpasseth understanding.

5-"And be ye thankful."

1-In light of this great peace we must be in constant mood of thanksgiving for his mercies, for his grace, and for all the comforts of life.
