

THE BIBLICAL PHILOSOPHY OF DEATH

THOUGH MANY THOUGHTS HAVE BEEN SUGGESTED IT IS NOT REALLY POSSIBLE TO DEFINE DEATH.

1. Some one spoke of death as: CHANGING THE FORM.

1. When we pass from one room to the other, we do not necessarily destroy the room we left.
2. In death we have passed from the restricted room of time into the fields of eternity.

2. Another spoke of death as the end of life.

1. What we may speak of as the end of something is in reality, the beginning of something else.
 1. The day ends...the night begins.
 2. The sun sets...the moon rises.
 3. Burn carbon in the proper proportions, subject it to the proper pressure, and you have a diamond.
 - A. You have changed the lesser to the greater and you have a more beautiful form.

3. I do not know very much about death but I have a friend who does. He said: John 5:28,29...

1. This is the day of "news flashes". It may come from the TV screen, radio or by word of mouth.
 1. Some of this news might be called great news
 2. Some of it not so great.
2. The greatest news the world has ever received came not from any of the afore mentioned media but from a graveyard.
 1. The empty tomb of Christ was the first really great news flash to the world.
 2. Your empty tomb will be the second.

4. THE biblical philosophy of death is expressed in these words:

1. Death is an appointment. Heb. 9:27
2. Death is a rest. Rev. 14:13
3. Death is a departure. 2 Tim. 4:6

 1. The day ends... the night begins.
 2. The sun sets... the moon rises.
 3. Our carbon in the upper proportion, and feel it to be the proper presence, and you have a second.
 4. You have changed the lead to the great...
