

"The Greater Commandments."

Matthew 22:34-40.

Luke 10:25-29

Mark 12:28-34

1. Love presupposes estimation.
 1. Love resists all attempts at coercion.
Love cannot be forced...it must be won.
2. The root principle of Christian conduct is love. Love is shown in two principal relations.

1. It seeks the welfare of those who are loved.

THE HONOR OF GOD AND THE GOOD OF FELLOWMEN.

"For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous."

1 John 5:3

2. It delights in fellowship with those who are loved. Romans 12:10;

"Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honor preferring one another
CONSIDER:

Christian love draws us nearer to God and nearer to one another.

3. Love identifies itself with its object.
 1. If we love the world.....

2. If we love God we acknowledge in in worship...By praise...By meditation; by prayer. We acknowledge him in service...Obeying his will.
