

NOTE: When a man embarks on the sea of life with a woman he is morally bound to provide for her safe landing as well as his own.

He has no more right to change boats in mid-sea and leave her and her children, his children to the mercy of the elements than a sea captain has to leave his passengers in mid-Atlantic and embark with his crew on another vessel.

THE NEGLECTED MOTHER

Proverbs 1:8; "My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother.

(1) Only duty to God supersedes man's duty to his parents.

(2) Exodus 21:17; "And he that curseth his father, or his mother, shall surely be put to death."

(3) Proverbs 20:20; "Whoso curseth his father, or his mother, his lamp shall be put out in obscure darkness." In this we have:

1. HATRED TO PARENTS

1. Such hatred springs from an excessive, irregular, disordered desire, and generally from an ill-led life.
2. Hatred for parents is unnatural beyond most vices, it is like hating, biting the hand that lifts food to the mouth.
3. It is disobedience to a Divine command. Eph. 6:1-3
4. It incurs the Divine curse and the darkest doom.

2. AND DO NOT BLESS THEIR MOTHER

1. On their way from innocence to formalism, grown, adulthood children constantly fail to bless their mother. MOTHER FORGIVES THEM.
2. When they are grown physically and mentally and fail to bless their mother it is then:
  1. They drag her down like a hidden tumor.
  2. They depress her until she is more like a smoky lamp.
  3. They fill her soul with the shadows of the dungeon.
  4. 2 Tim. 3:2,3; describes such individuals as "Disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without natural affection." Those who bless not their mother are parricides in society, and as a result of their parricidal conduct will suffer greatly in this life and all things in the life to come.

When a man speaks in the presence of a woman he is usually bound to give her the same respect as well as his own. He has no more right to change her than she has to change his. It is the duty of the man to be as kind and considerate to the woman as she is to him. In his own mind he may be a different person, but in the presence of a woman he must be a different man.

It is not only the man's duty to be kind and considerate to the woman, but it is also the woman's duty to be kind and considerate to the man. In the presence of a man she must be a different woman. It is the duty of the woman to be as kind and considerate to the man as he is to her. In her own mind she may be a different person, but in the presence of a man she must be a different woman.

NEGLECTS THAT KILL MOTHERS

no law against a boy?
Choccolter*

1. THE NEGLECT OF SILENCE.

1. "You have been a good mother to us," said a stalwart son to to a dying mother whose worn out body had been laid low by a stroke.
  1. This mother was widowed early in life and left with six children. Through hard work she had managed to get them all through college.

2. THE NEGLECT OF CLEAN LIVING.

1. No boy has a right to visit the Circean island of lust on his way to the marriage alter. He has no right to sin against his future wife and mother of his children.

3. THE NEGLECT OF CO-OPERATION

1. This sin on the part of many fathers, failing to help with the children has dulled the glow of love in the heart of many mothers. Eph. 6:4
2. We read of the mother of Zebedee's children, James and John, bring them to Jesus and asking a favored place for them in His kingdom. Matt. 20:20, 21
3. We cannot help but wonder as to the whereabouts of Zebedee? Could it have been:
  1. It may be that the trout season opened that day.
  2. Maybe the pheasant season opened.
  4. It may be that he was puffed up yet because some months before James and John had left their father and his fishing business to follow Jesus.
  5. Any way he was not with the mother in this venture

4. THE NEGLECT OF CONSIDERATION.

1. Some children desert their parents.
2. The story of the woman who died in a Pennsylvania Poor House at the age of 107. The statement of her death revealed that she was survived by 4 sons.
3. TELL BELL TO COME FOR ME: was the request of a little old lady in one of our Poor houses. Bell was the daughter living comfortably in a western state. Bell never came. WHY IS IT EASIER FOR ONE MOTHER TO TAKE CARE OF 10 CHILDREN THAN IT IS FOR 10 CHILDREN TO TAKE CARE OF ONE PARENT. 4. The pathos of childless old age indescribable, but a childless old age in the midst of children is worse by far.
