

INTRODUCTION : Today is the day; not tomorrow. TOMORROW: the greatest robber of men. Opportunity, time, money, most of all men's souls all slip away in the battlements (open spaces) of tomorrow. Tomorrow never comes.

Today is the day of salvation because:

1. We know not the time of our departure from this life.
Our life is so brief. Read God's word:
 1. Job 7:6, 7; "My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle and are spent without hope."
"O remember that my life is wind: mine eye shall no more see good."
 2. James 4:13-14; 1 Peter 1:24
2. God hath spoken. Heb. 1:1,2
 1. Not the words of men, Disciplines written by men, Confessions of faith: Westminster Confession of Faith by the presbyterian church.
 2. God's word is going to judge us. John 12:48; "He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day."
3. The Lord stands at the door of the heart of the lost soul knocking today. He may not knock tomorrow. Rev. 3:20-22.
 1. Christ standing at our door...we should be standing at his door, for he is the door. John 10:7, 9.
 2. The soul may be likened to a great place with many doors. Christ knocks sometimes at one door and then at another. He may:
 1. Knock at the door of intellect: Presents the evidence of the reasonableness of his faith & claims.
 2. Knock at the door of conscience, the door of love, the door of fear, the door of hope.
4. Death and the judgement are certain. Heb. 9:27.
 1. Death is, and will be a sentence against which no appeal can be heard. It will be hard to part with so many friends, so many interest, so much work, so many hopes: but there is no help for it.
