

WARNING: DANGER AHEAD, OR WAYSIDE ADJUSTMENTS

Ezekial 3:15-19; Acts 20:31; 1 Thessalonians 5:14

INTRODUCTION: A trip along our highways offers a good illustration of the journey of life.

The sources of information, whether official highway signs or simply advertisements are intended for one purpose: TO GUIDE THE TRAVELER.

OFFICIAL HIGHWAY SIGNS ARE NOT CAPRICIOUS:

1. They are for the good of all travelers.
 1. These signs are prophetic in that they give notice to the traveler of what to expect ahead.
 2. These signs are instructive in that they tell the driver what to do right then in order to be prepared for the double-s curve ahead.

HISTORY WARNS US OF THE FOLLY OF REJECTING GOD

1. The path of history is cluttered with wrecked and ruined nations that forgot God and died.
 1. Our nations today is rightfully concerned about the effect of polluted air and water on national health:
 1. We seem not the least concerned, and actually seem to be blind to the unspeakable pollution of mind and spirit that spews forth from the printed page, movie screens, including TV right in our homes.
 2. Law-making bodies across America seem to be vying with one another in striving to legalize sin in various forms: ALL THIS IT SEEMS AS A CONCESSION TO A PEOPLE WHO HAVE WILLFULLY REJECTED THEIR REDEEMER.

PRESENT DAY, ANXIOUS THEOLOGIANS HAVE FALLEN INTO A LAMENTABLE SCRAMBLE IN AN EFFORT TO ADJUST THEMSELVES TO A PASSING FASHION OF THOUGHT.

1. To write a paperback on HOMO MATURES, "man come of age" does not kill God. It simply means that man has drifted so far in the wrong direction that he is unable even to think Christian thoughts.
 1. The tragedy of it all is the easy victory of the small band of iconoclast over denominational churchmen of feeble faith...men who have been led of inweired by-paths to vanish in the wilderness of infidelity and atheism.

Ezekiel 3:12-19; Acts 20:31; 1 Thessalonians 5:14

INTRODUCTION: A trip along our highways offers a good illustration of the journey of life.

The sources of information, whether official highway signs or simply advertisements are intended for one purpose: TO GUIDE THE TRAVELER.

OFFICIAL HIGHWAY SIGNS ARE NOT CARICIOUS:

1. They are for the good of all travelers.
1. These signs are prophetic in that they give notice to the traveler of what to expect ahead.
2. These signs are instructive in that they tell the driver what to do right then in order to be prepared for the double-curve ahead.

HISTORY WARNS US OF THE FOLLY OF REJECTING GOD

1. The path of history is cluttered with wrecked and ruined nations that forgot God and died.
1. Our nations today is righteously concerned about the effect of polluted air and water on national health:
1. We seem not the least concerned, and actually seem to be blind to the unspeakable pollution of mind and spirit that spews forth from the printed page, movie screens, including TV right in our homes.
2. Law-making bodies across America seem to be vying with one another in striving to legalize sin in various forms: ALL THIS IT SEEMS AS A CONCESSION TO A PEOPLE WHO HAVE WILLFULLY REJECTED THEIR REDEEMER.

PRESENT DAY ANXIOUS THEOLOGICALS HAVE FALLEN INTO A LAMENTABLE SCRAMBLE IN AN EFFORT TO ADJUST THEMSELVES TO A PASSING FASHION OF THOUGHT.

1. To write a paperback on HOMO MATURUS, "man come of age" does not kill God. It simply means that man has drifted so far in the wrong direction that he is unable even to think Christian thoughts.
1. The tragedy of it all is the easy victory of the small band of iconoclast over denominational churchmen of feeble faith... men who have been led of in weird by-paths to vanish in the wilderness of infidelity and atheism.

PAUL BIDS US LEARN FROM HISTORY

1. Romans 15:4; "For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.
2. 1 Corinthians 10:11; "Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, (warning) upon whom the ends of the world are come.
3. Men often seem slow to learn and it seems many of them are set to learn the hard way.

MEN IN MANY DENOMINATIONAL PULPITS TODAY DENY THE VIRGIN BIRTH OF CHRIST AND EVEN THE RESURRECTION OF CHRIST. Such denials are not new among weak feeble faithless little men: Some examples;

1. For a group of grown men in Ephesus to yell and scream for two hours (Acts 19:32) "Great is Diana of the Ephesians" did not bring the lump of stone in the Ephesian temple to life. Diana remained as dead as she always was: eyes that could not see; ears that could not hear; and a mouth that could not speak.
2. For men in Athens to mock (at the thought of the resurrection (Acts 17:30-32), and for men in Corinth to say, (1 Cor. 15:12-19), "There is no Resurrection" neither rolled the stone back in place at the resurrection tomb of Christ nor made liars of Peter and Paul who gave their lives to the preaching of the gospel of Christ and in hope of the resurrection from the dead.
3. In closing I bid you hear the words of Christ concerning the certainty of the resurrection: John 5:28, 29.
 1. The words of Paul concerning the second coming of Christ, 2 Thessalonians 1:6-9.
 2. Hear the words of Peter also: 1 Peter 4:14-18.

PAUL BIDS US LEARN FROM HISTORY

1. Romans 15:4: "For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learn- ing, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope."
2. I Corinthians 10:11: "Now all these things happen- ed unto them for ensamples; and they are written for our admonition, (warning) upon whom the ends of the world are come."
3. Men often seem slow to learn and it seems many of them are set to learn the hard way.

MEN IN MANY DENOMINATIONAL PULPITS TODAY DENY THE VIRGIN BIRTH OF CHRIST AND EVEN THE RESURRECTION OF CHRIST. Such denials are not new among weak feeble faithless little men: some examples;

1. For a group of grown men in Ephesus to yell and scream for two hours (Acts 19:32) "Great is Diana of the Ephesians" did not bring the lampoblasts in the Ephesian temple to life. Diana remained as dead as she always was; eyes that could not see; ears that could not hear; and a mouth that could not speak.
2. For men in Athens to mock (at the thought of the resurrection) (Acts 17:30-32), and for men in Corinth to say, (I Cor. 15:12-19), "There is no Resurrection" neither rolled the stone back in place at the resurrection tomb of Christ nor made lives of Peter and Paul who gave their lives to the preaching of the gospel of Christ and in hope of the resurrection, from the dead.
3. In closing I bid you hear the words of Christ concerning the certainty of the resurrection: John 5:28, 29.
 1. The words of Paul concerning the second coming of Christ, 2 Thessalonians 1:6-9.
 2. Hear the words of Peter also: I Peter 4:14-18.